I'M DRIFTING

A TOUR OF THE HIGH SEA

A SITE SPECIFIC PERFORMATIVE TOUR FOR TWO HOURS ON THE BOSPORUS

This ship is not a place, nor may it be considered from the point of view of the law as if it were within another place. Its legal status can hardly be told apart from that of the exceptional medium in which it moves. Like the high seas over which it sails, the vessel of the universal enemies is nowhere, no one's, and exposed, therefore, to being legitimately captured by all.
